

Pet Portraits with Coloured Pencil
Jonathan Newey

4th - 5th May 2019
Saturday to Sunday

This is a two day course that aims to introduce students to drawing pet portraits with coloured pencil. The course will practise basic pencil techniques including shading, texturing, blending and embossing. The tutor will demonstrate each exercise step by step in a relaxed and friendly manner, showing you how to draw fur, eyes, noses, feathers and other features of domestic animals such as cats, dogs and budgerigars.

Description

This is an ideal course to learn how to draw pet portraits with coloured pencil. Each exercise will be demonstrated by the tutor step by step and the course will be run in a friendly, non pressured environment where the tutor will be on hand to encourage and inspire. Ideal for beginners and people with some knowledge of the medium. This course is an ideal stepping stone to other courses run by Missenden School of Creative Arts where you could develop your sketching skills further.

Please bring with you

One A4 white cartridge paper pad
One medium size starter pack of artists quality coloured pencils (Derwent, Faber Castel, Caran Dache, Lyra or WH Smith)
If you have watercolour pencils then these can also be used dry
Pencil sharpener, 2B/4B pencil, eraser

Available to purchase from the tutor

A sheet of coloured paper/board will be supplied for one of the exercises at a cost of £1 per student.
The tutor will have a selection of tools and materials available to purchase but may not have enough for everyone.
