

Spring into Action with Wild and Wonderful Watercolours Jackie Devereux PSGFA

12th - 14th Apr 2019
Friday to Sunday

Explore brush techniques - indulge in colour - blend the two et voila! On this weekend workshop we shall concentrate on getting the most out of everything - the paper, the brushes and the paint and by the end of the weekend you will forget that you have a brush in hand - it will become a natural extension to your hand. Take all the spills and thrills and throw caution out of the window All levels of ability welcome.

Description

Explore brush techniques - indulge in colour - blend the two.....et voila! On this weekend workshop we shall concentrate on getting the most out of everything - the paper, the brushes and the paint.....by the end of the weekend you will forget that you have a brush in hand - it will become a natural extension to your hand. Take all the spills and thrills and throw caution out of the window..... All levels of ability welcome.

Please bring with you

- Plastic palette
- Magic Sponge
- Water spritzer (from Boots)

About Jackie Devereux PSGFA

Greatly influenced by Japanese art and the light of southern France, Jackie's work ranges from pure contemporary watercolour on a large scale, to delicate pencil and expressive pen and ink - all experimental in nature. She has travelled extensively and as drawing is an integral part of her work and development her sketchbook is her constant companion. An experienced adult tutor, Jackie enjoys working with groups and sharing her ideas and techniques and watching others develop their potential. Jackie's work is well published and collected internationally. She has exhibited widely throughout the UK and France, as well as in the USA and Japan. She has shown with the RWS, RI and with the Society of Graphic Fine Art regularly in Menier Gallery, Southwark and Bankside Gallery, London. Jackie was elected President of the Society of Graphic Fine Art for five years. Website: www.watercolour-online.co.uk
