

Drypoint Printing for Beginners
Janine Kilroe

28th - 29th Mar 2020
Saturday to Sunday

Explore the creative fun and enjoyment of Drypoint printmaking. Drypoint is a printmaking technique of the intaglio family, in which an image is incised into a plate with a hard-pointed "needle" of sharp metal or a diamond point. You can create your very own greeting cards, prints and more.

Description

You will have plenty of opportunity to explore a variety of techniques, tools and styles. By the end of the course you will have taken the first steps to a better understanding of Drypoint printmaking techniques with plenty of opportunity to use a variety of Drypoint tools and print mediums. You'll enjoy inspirational tutor led sessions with tricks and tips to help you build your confidence with individual tuition throughout the two day course. By the end of the weekend you will have completed a number of exercises and will have a couple of Drypoint prints to take home and keep or either post to friends or proudly hang on your own wall.

Please bring with you

- Rubber gloves;
- An Apron;
- Baby wipes;
- Some old newspaper;
- All materials and tools will be provided for £15 per person payable to the tutor on the weekend. This will cover the use of Drypoint tools, Inks, Paper and Plexi Glass etc

About Janine Kilroe

Working from her studio in Bicester, Janine Kilroe has created images for the last 30 years, initially as an editorial advertising photographer commissioned by many international blue chip companies and for the past nine years focusing on creating a truly unique style of hand painted fine art photography. Janine's craft conveys a captured unique moment in time. Inspired by what makes Britain: Its nature, landscapes and coastal environments, Janine's view of the world, an unseen layer peeled back. Her work has been exhibited in galleries throughout the UK, including the Royal West Academy, the Royal Academy Summer Exhibition and The Saatchi Gallery, London. Her signature artwork is to print black and white fine art photographs onto watercolour paper and then selectively reintroduce colour back into the image by hand painting using watercolour pencils, washes and acrylic inks.
